PARTICIPANTS PROFILE

The project is aimed at youth workers, decision-makers, peer educators/multipliers, youth leaders, and municipal representatives from active youth organizations, especially those with established connections to youth centers or clubs. It focuses on including professionals and volunteers who are actively involved with young people, with the goal of enhancing their skills in youth work and youth participation.

Participants should have a strong command of both verbal and written English and be available for the entire duration of the project, which includes preparation, main activities, material development, dissemination, and evaluation. Prior knowledge of non-formal learning and youth-related topics will be advantageous for a productive experience and effective sharing of insights.
